Your Yearly Relationship Report

This report will give you an in-depth look at some of your personal relationships over a period of time, usually one year, but sometimes longer depending upon what you requested. Each person in your life that you wanted to know about has his or her own section that tells how he or she will relate to you in the given time period. Thus, if you had asked to do three different people for a certain year, you will have a section for each person. In a similar manner, all the people for one particular year will be in the same major section. If you have more than one year, there will be chapters in this report based upon each of the years. The years go by your age. So, if you are currently 45 years old and had asked for two years of reports, there will be a chapter for Age 45 and one for Age 46, and within each of those chapters will be a section for each person on your list of Friends that you wanted your report for.

The Connections between You

The method that we use to determine influences and compatibility between people uses what we call Connections. These connections usually have planetary names, such as Mercury, Venus, Mars, etc. But some have other names like Displacement, Result, or Environment. In all cases, the connection between you and someone else is derived from their relationship to you in the current year's cards. Every connection will be explained as they occur so you do not need to understand this system in order to benefit from this report.

These yearly influences between you and those you know are important. You can find that one year you are very compatible with someone and then it changes dramatically after your next birthday. Another common example is where someone is playing a prominent role in your life but then just sort of fades away as the year ends. Both these examples can be explained by the yearly relationship influences. It is definitely helpful to know what these influences are ahead of time. It is good, however, to keep in mind that you have life-long influences with everyone in your life, which are, in most respects, more important and more powerful than the yearly influences that come and go. This report intentionally does not touch upon these but you should be aware of them nonetheless. If you would like to learn more about your life-long connections with others, you can read the book, Love Cards, or get a regular relationship report where you got this one.

Regular verses Underlying Card Connections

Sometimes you will have connections with someone that come from a connection to them as an Underlying Card. This can be often or not at all. Underlying Card connections are not quite as strong or powerful as the regular connections. As you read about the connections you have with each person on your list, keep this in mind. Having a regular connection with someone is a much greater influence and gives a much stronger probability that the two of you will have some important interactions in the given year. There is no way to determine exactly how less significant the Underlying Card connections are, but they are. We hope you enjoy this report. We think you will find it insightful, accurate, and helpful in your understanding of the influence of others in your life.

To whatever extent you have involvement with Karyn you will find that she has a powerful effect upon you, one that is intended to help you make an important change in your life this year. When this connection appears it usually has one of several possible meanings. The first is that perhaps there is something important that you want from Karyn. For example, if this is an intimate relationship, perhaps you are wanting marriage, or divorce from she, or just something more. In all cases it would be very important to look at the Result, also called Cosmic Reward, Card for the year to learn more about how Karyn will affect you and what in particular it is that makes them such a powerful force for your transformation. If this is a potentially competitive relationship, this connection could prove destructive to you both. Unless you have very strong Mars cards this year, it would not be wise to compete with someone who is your Pluto Card in any given year. No matter what kind of relationship you have with Karyn you will find that she affects you powerfully, perhaps bringing up feelings that are surprising to you in their intensity and effect. Your Result Card for this year may also tell you what the ultimate blessing will be from this transformation you are making with Karyn's help. Karyn is Saturn to You This Year

Saturn is considered one of the more difficult placements in the cards. Usually someone who is Saturn to us will be a burden or source of limitation to us during that time. Therefore, it is highly likely that Karyn will be that sort of burden or limitation in your life this year, but especially during your Saturn period of the year. There are many possible ways this could manifest depending upon what sort of relationship you have with Karyn in the first place. Sometimes a Saturn person is someone who gets ill and becomes a burden for a time. In other instances a Saturn person will do something that causes us problems or aggravation, usually the result of something we did to them in the past. But Saturn people can also be our doctors or teachers. If you have actually chosen Karyn to be your teacher in some way this year, this connection would be considered very positive. Saturn people tend to be a hardship on us, or criticize us or both. This would not be a good connection for example if Karyn is your lover or spouse. This would mean that they would be a major problem for you this year, but again, especially during the Saturn period. Whatever the exact nature of your relationship with Karyn, study your cards in the Saturn period to learn more about what potential situation may develop between you. The good news is that generally this influence dissipates by the end of your Saturn period, leaving the rest of the year free for other more harmonious energies to develop between you.

Karyn seems to criticize me a lot this year.

Karyn can help me in important areas if I am willing to look at my own self-judgements and criticisms.
